

Your Personal Love and Relating Report

Love, Relating, Sensuality, Sexual Chemistry

For: EXAMPLE Date of birth: 21st November 1978 at 9:25 AM Place of birth: San Francisco

The way that you approach relationships and the kind of qualities that you should look for in a partner is described in this report.

Just as there is more to you than just your Sun sign, there can be many reasons why someone is on your wavelength. To discover who you are in tune with, and why, the Soul Mate Report describes not only your Sun sign, but your Moon sign, your Venus sign and your Mars sign as well. All these different aspects of your nature contribute to the unique individual that is you, and show why you may get different things from different people.

While your Sun sign shows your conscious personality and who you get on with when it comes to basic traits of character, your Moon sign shows another, far more hidden aspect of your nature - your unconscious instincts and emotions. The way that you relate to others when it comes to passion and romance, and the people you are drawn to and are naturally in tune with on a sexual level, are shown by your Mars and Venus signs. The four elements - fire, earth, air and water - also play an important role in who you are in tune with.

So if you find someone attractive, even though their Sun is not in tune with yours, other links between your Moon or Mars signs, for example, could turn out to be the explanation. So concentrate on the type of person someone is, not just on their Sun sign.

The Sun

Your zodiac Sun sign describes your basic character and orientation, your will, your goals and purpose in life. Your Sun also represents your conscious self, and links between your Sun and someone else's Sun or planets, show a natural affinity between you, as people. Emotional, romantic and sexual affinities are shown by your Moon, Venus and Mars signs.

Sun in Scorpio

Water

With the Sun in Scorpio, you are intensely passionate about all emotional matters. Love, for you, is an all or nothing thing and you have no time for casual flirtations, or for merely sexual affairs. Scorpio rules life's greatest mysteries - birth, death, sex and regeneration - and you have a serious and genuinely mystical approach to love and sex, which you see as a way to transcend individual boundaries and to feel at one with life on a deep level. You are loyal, but you expect the same, and more, from those you are involved with and if they let you down, you find it hard either to forgive or to forget. However, when you see the writing on the wall, you are more than able to break free from what is past and turn the page.

As a Scorpio, you are naturally in tune with calm, down to earth and sensuous Taurus, Scorpio's opposing sign, and those with Taurus strongly featured in their personal chart are able both to earth and reassure you, while you, in turn, give a new depth and meaning to their whole emotional life. Although you approach it from very different angles, sexuality is of great importance to you both, which makes this a combination that can run and run.

With the Sun in Scorpio, you will also be on the same wavelength as those with the Sun, Moon or planets in Scorpio, or in the other water signs, Cancer and Pisces. Like you, these people are deeply sensitive and have powerful emotions. However, relationships with other water signs can have too much emphasis on moods and feelings and it can be hard to find enough detachment or to focus on life's everyday commitments.

The Moon

While the Sun shows your conscious personality and sense of self, the Moon reveals your more feminine, unconscious side, your instincts, your emotions and your past. In a woman's chart it also shows her particular type of femininity and her ability to give, and to receive, real nurturing and caring. In a man's chart, it reveals his feminine side, of which he may be less aware, as well as the kind of woman he feels drawn to and can care for on a true emotional level.

Moon in Leo

Fire

Everything about the fiery and expansive sign of Leo is on the grand scale, and your approach to love is no exception. You are generous to a fault to those you are involved with and you love to make expansive gestures. All fire signs are concerned with the future, not the past, and you tend to live in your imagination, which is colourful, to say the least. Love, for you, is a grand drama and you soon grow restless if the dull realities of every day begin to play too large a part. You like to live life to the full - and to be the center of attention - as you need feedback from the world around you if you are to feel fulfilled and happy. But you have a lot to give, as you are optimistic and warm-hearted and you always make your loved ones feel that they are special.

A woman with the Moon in Leo is naturally in tune with men who share her imaginative and pioneering fire sign orientation and who have similar priorities, emotions and desires to hers. These men may have the Sun in Aries, Sagittarius or Leo, or may just exhibit all the fire sign traits, as they have other planets in these signs. They are adventurous, hot-headed and romantic, but, as opposites attract, a woman with the Moon here is often drawn to airy and detached Aquarian types, as Aquarius is Leo's opposing sign. Where you are concerned with expressing your unique individuality, and with personal emotions, they are more concerned with abstract thought, with joint endeavours and with friendship. This can be a perfect match, as Aquarius can help you find a new detachment. In turn, the Moon in Leo brings colour, human feeling and real drama and excitement into Aquarius's cool, detached existence.

A man's Moon sign is one of the two most important indicators of the kind of women with whom he feels in tune. With the Moon in Leo, he will be attracted to forceful and dramatic women with a Leo Sun or Moon, or who show strong Leo traits. However, he may well be less consciously aware of this side of his nature than a woman with the Moon here, as he 'finds' his Moon, his feminine and hidden side, in the Leo women he is drawn to.

Venus

For both sexes, the Venus sign reveals the more passive, affectionate, romantic and feminine side of the way we love. It's our style of relating to others and the way we attract them to us.

In a woman's chart, her Venus sign also describes her special brand of femininity, and how she puts herself across to people she is drawn to.

In a man's chart, his Venus sign also reveals the kind of women that he finds attractive and most often gets romantically and sexually involved with.

Venus in Scorpio

Water

To those who do not know you well, you usually seem calm and in control of your emotions. But beneath the surface it is quite another story, as you are as intense and deeply passionate as it gets. You are not interested in casual liaisons, as your approach to love is all or nothing and you can form almost telepathic links with those you care for. Venus in Scorpio is famous for its magnetism and charisma - and its interest in sex. But what you are really after is a chance to reach the heights of love and powerful emotion. You will risk your all to get there and you are not afraid to plumb the depths, or to break taboos that more conventional signs abide by. You are also fiercely loyal and will fight to the death to help your loved ones. But woe betide someone who betrays your trust, for you can be vengeful and you do not easily forget. Life may be hard, at times, for those with Venus here, but you are more likely to experience true joy than those who are more superficial and light-hearted. And you have more than enough courage to cope with anything, or anyone, who comes along. Not to mention the seductive powers to win them. Men with Venus here choose deep, powerful, sultry women.

Your Venus in Square with Your Jupiter

This aspect gives a streak of real extravagance to your nature and you love to make expansive gestures with both your money and emotions. You see life as a great pageant - in which you play the leading part - and you love pleasure, luxury and comfort. You also tend to trust to luck where all financial issues are concerned. Everything tends to be larger than life with you, which can make every passing fancy a grand passion filled with intrigue and excitement. You are not interested in what is down to earth and stable, and you can rush in where angels fear to tread in pursuit of your ideals.

Your Venus in Sextile with Your Saturn

You not only have astounding creative talent, but your friends and relatives appreciate you for your loyalty and reliability. You should be capable of making long-lasting friendships because you value your relationships so much. What you want most is to live happily at your partner's side, which includes working together to realize your mutual creative ambitions. You are able to sacrifice your own personal advantages for the sake of others. In society, you appear cultivated and charming, and constantly expanding your general education is important to you. Professional success will enable you to live comfortably on an adequate retirement fund. The simple lifestyle you prefer will help you to realize this with little effort.

While your Venus Sign - and any links it makes with other planets in your birth chart - show how you love, the house it falls in shows the area of your life where it manifests most strongly.

Venus in the Tenth House

The tenth house represents our public image, our career and standing in the world. It also shows how we project ourselves to others. With Venus here, you have a glamorous persona and others are drawn to you by your confidence and charm. How others see you is important to you, and you are diplomatic, practical and focused, which makes you an ideal partner. You may well get involved with someone who you work with, or share career ambitions with them.

Love and Relating

Remember that someone may show strong Gemini or Taurus traits, for instance, perhaps because they have the Moon or Venus in that sign, but have the Sun in quite another zodiac sign.

Venus in Scorpio with:

Fiery, pioneering Aries:

This love can be a very liberating, passionate experience. You both want, and need, to break new emotional ground to really feel alive, but they could lack your staying power.

Down to earth and loyal Taurus:

This is physical passion at its most fulfilling. They also know how to soothe your tempestuous emotions and can help you to enjoy the simple pleasures of this earth.

Quick-witted, restless Gemini:

They are great fun and can bring out your playful, childlike side, but your intensity and depth can make them feel confused and threatened, so tread gently.

Sensitive, maternal Cancer:

You can show the way you really feel inside to them, as they are not afraid of love or of emotion. You are both private people, and they bring out your softness and compassion.

Dramatic and romantic Leo:

You both approach love and passion with a religious fervour, which makes this a highly charged romance, but make sure of their real feelings before you take the plunge.

Cool, realistic Virgo:

The strength of your feelings can, at times, be hard to handle. They can help you find your way through the emotional maze and find a new balance and contentment.

Romantic and sophisticated Libra:

Gentle and appealing they may be, but your idea of what love should be can be very different to theirs, and they can lack your need to share emotions on a deep, committed level.

Intense, passionate Scorpio:

Perhaps they are the only ones who will understand the real depths of your emotions and your passionate ideals. But this love could be almost too intense, even for you.

Adventurous, idealistic Sagittarius:

You both look for some kind of higher truth in love, but they are life's explorers, and could find it hard to give you the certainty and the assurance that you seek.

Reserved and loyal Capricorn:

With you they are able to reveal their gentler, more emotional side, which they tend to keep hidden. They will take your feelings seriously and are loyal to the last.

Idealistic and free-thinking Aquarius:

This can be a strong relationship, although they may find your possessiveness difficult to cope with. But they can give you a new lens to view life through.

Sensitive and dreamy Pisces:

Rainbows, tears, an ocean of emotion. You find in them a sensitive and deeply caring lover who brings out your protectiveness and empowers your imagination.

Mars

Your Mars Sign

Mars is the planet that rules sexuality. For both sexes, the Mars sign describes the more active, masculine side of the love nature. However, for a man, the Mars sign also describes his type of masculinity and drive, as well as how he puts himself across in romantic situations. In a woman's chart, her Mars sign also shows the kind of man that she feels drawn to and is sexually in tune with.

Mars in Sagittarius

Fire

With Mars in Sagittarius, lucky and expansive Jupiter's own sign, you are on a quest for new horizons - and new hearts to conquer. But you are also one of nature's great romantics and love, for you, is just as much a quest for meaning and for an elevated union that can verge on the divine. There is nothing trivial or small about your feelings and your idealistic, passionate approach usually ensures that you are not short of friends or lovers. But, not surprisingly, perhaps, your great expectations can be disappointed and you can soon grow disillusioned. For those with Mars in Sagittarius, the zodiac's most adventurous sign, the grass is often greener somewhere else and, although you never mean to be disloyal, you are driven to continue on your quest. As a result, you function best in close relationships that give you space to be yourself, as you need freedom to experiment with life and to discover new horizons.

Men with Mars in Sagittarius are often drawn to people with the Sun, or other planets, such as Venus, in Gemini, Sagittarius's opposing sign.

Women with Mars in Sagittarius, are drawn sexually and emotionally to people who have the Sun or Mars in Sagittarius.

Mars in the Twelfth House

With forceful Mars in the most private, hidden area of your chart, you are very telepathic. Traditionally, this is also the house which rules secret love affairs, and you may well have a tendency to fall in love with people who you cannot be with, or have past life connections with. You also may appear to be much milder-natured and more willing to let others have their way, than is, in fact, the case. For behind the scenes, you are as determined as they come, but you get your way by far more roundabout and subtle means than most. In a woman's chart, this also tends to be the type of personality she is naturally drawn to and finds most sexually attractive.

Fire, Earth, Air, Water

The four elements - fire, earth, air and water - also play a large part in determining our natural soul mates. Count how many planets you have in each element - the signs and their elements are listed below. If, for instance, the majority of the planets in your birth chart are in earth signs, you will feel naturally in tune with those who share your emphasis on earth. However, you may also be strongly attracted to people who have what you lack - if most of your planets are in earth signs, but you lack water, you may be drawn to someone who has a lot of planets in water signs. Also, if you do have the majority of your planets in earth signs, but you have Mars and Venus in water, your earth sign orientation may well override your Mars and Venus signs at times.

Fire

Aries, Leo, Sagittarius

Fire is the element of spirit, warmth and life and those with fire predominating in their charts are famous for their powerful imagination and their zest for living. When it comes to the emotional realm, they are adventurous, dramatic and flamboyant, and lavish gestures and grand passions are their stock in trade. But they can have problems concentrating on the here and now, as the future, not the present or the past, is what concerns them. And, because their imagination is so vivid, they can find it hard to tell the difference between dreams and fantasies and their real feelings - or to settle down to what they see as dull routine.

Earth

Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn

For those with earth predominating in their charts, the here and now and what is real are all-important. What is happening around them - and everything that they can see and touch - is what concerns them. They do not have much time for abstract thought or what they see as idle dreams and their idea of love is down to earth. They can lack imagination, but they more than compensate for that as they are stable, loyal, lovers who know how to nurture those they care for. The whole realm of the senses also falls in their domain.

Air

Gemini, Libra, Aquarius

Air is the element of abstract thought and of communication. For those with air predominating in their charts, real intellectual rapport with those they are involved with is essential. Security and sensuality take second place to finding someone they can talk to - in fact, the whole realm of emotion can be threatening to them and they often give it a wide berth - which is even true of the romantic sign of Libra. As a result, they can seem fickle, as their natural curiosity and need for mental stimulation drives them on to look for new horizons.

Water

Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces

As water is the element of feeling and emotion, those with many planets in the water signs are more at home in the emotional realm than others. They are not phased by passionate displays of feeling - in fact, they can grow bored when life is too plain sailing. Intuitive to the point of being psychic, they are also prone to ever-changing moods. They have no time for casual relationships, as they are great romantics and love, for them, is all or nothing.
